

Joe Morris

Mamie Morris

Morris Funeral Home Will Continue to Serve Marlboro and Surrounding Communities

James S. "Jimmy" McLeod, Sr.

October 14, 1939 – July 27, 2011

His Legacy Lives On

Morris Funeral Home in Bennettsville, SC, has proudly served families of Marlboro and surrounding counties since 1914! Daddy's grandparents, Joe and Mamie Morris, believed that "if you train a child up in the way he should go, when he is old, he will not depart from it." So they did. And Daddy never departed from their training.

His character, integrity, love for God, his family and community are eternally imprinted upon the hearts and minds of all who knew and loved him.

And because he raised his children with those same values...that same unshakable foundation, we stand together today, to honor Daddy's memory, cherish his life and continue his lifelong dream that you have come to know, love and support for almost a century!

His vision and ours, is to serve our community with dignity, honor and that distinctive quality that has always been and forever will be the hallmark of a Morris Service.

We thank you for the opportunity to continue to serve you and your families. Because of you, his legacy lives on through us...

We Thought Of You Today

*Daddy, we thought of you today,
But that is nothing new.
We thought of you yesterday
And will tomorrow, too.
We think of you in silence
And make no outward show.
For what it meant to lose you
Only those who love you know.
Remembering you is easy,
We do it everyday.
It's the heartache of losing you
That will never go away...*

Tracey McLeod Williams

Mia McLeod Garrick

Erica McLeod Davis

James S. "Jimmy" McLeod, Jr.

May the Lord, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge, reward you fully for what you have done. -Ruth 2:12