

In Loving Memory of Our Parents

Until We Meet Again

*We haven't gone far away from you
So there's really no need to cry
We're watching over from heaven above
Just beyond the morning sky*

*We've seen you almost fall apart
With pain you could barely stand
We've asked God's angels to comfort you
And watched them take your hand*

*They've told us that you're in more pain
Than we could ever be
But God wipes your eyes, heals your hearts
And says, "Give your pain to me"*

*Although you may not feel our touch
Or see us by your side
We whisper that we love you deeply
And know each tear you've cried*

*So please don't let your hearts be troubled
God's love will light the way
And remember that we're always with you
Until we meet again...someday*

We love and miss you both, during the holidays and everyday...

Tracey, Mia, Erica, Jimmy, Jr. and your grandchildren

And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away.

Rev. 21:4
